JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

GEN. GRANT AND THE RADICAL MANAGERS.

The republican managers, through their various newspaper organs, east and west, are discussing the important question, "What shall we do with Gen. Grant? They are already beginning to look upon him as their white elephant, or as a sort of second Andy Johnson more dangerous than the first. They are hard to please. What just ground of complaint have they against General Grant? None in the world. Has he not faithfully adhered to the Chicago platform? Has he not actively supported the ratification of the fifteenth amendment of the constitution for the establishment of equal suffrage to all male citizens over the age of twenty-one, whites, negroes, Chinese, Indians and all? Has he not, in his appointments to office, established the doctrine of equal rights to whites, blacks and reds—in a black man, for instance, as Minister to Liberia and another to Hayti, and a other as internal revenue assessor in New Orleans, and another as postmaster of Columbia, S. C., and in an Indian as Commissioner of Indian Affairs? He has done all these things, and with the consent and applause of the Senate. Nor has he forgotten women's rights, for, beginning with Richmond, late the Confederate capital of Jeff. Davis, he has appointed a fair proportion of women as postmasters.

Could mortal man do more in the White House as the embodiment of the Chicago platform and the Republican party? No. But anybody ever expect for Gen. Grant to do so much? No. Why, then, all these discords in the camp and all this clamor against General Grant from the party organs and managers? It is simply because in giving out some three thousand offices General Grant has failed to satisfy the thirty thousand men who had expected these offices. To the twenty-seven thousand who are disappointed and their backers we are indebted for all this hue and cry against Gen. Grant. Spoils, spoils—it is all about the spoils. But the seed is sown, and a good crop of weeds is already beginning to sprout among the spring wheat. The truth is that, as the Republican party has gained its extreme demands, and has no longer any great principles to fight for, it has nothing to do but to wrangle and squabble over the spoils, which is the beginning of a general disintegration and break up.—N. Y. Herald.

THE SYMPATHY BUSINESS.

The collapse of the Cuban "patriot" business makes one think of the ardor with which the professional sympathizers of this city labored in its behalf. We say professional sympathizers because "the noblest emotions of our nature, sir," are in this great metropolis reduced to a very genteel kind of trade. Money down is hardly the style in which the business is conducted, at least for the most eminent practitioners; but still it is money, as we shall show. There are in and around New York a number of persons, some of them of considerable legal and clerical repute, to whom notoriety has a cash value. By courtesy of the profession, they cannot advertise outright, but by the "boldest emotion" trick secure every possible advantage of that procedure in the most eminent degree. Indeed, in the main purpose of newspaper advertising, they are enabled to do immensely more than the heaviest business men; for let such man advertise never so heavily—even to one, two, or three pages of the paper—and there is not anywhere else in that paper any notice of, or reference to, either the man or his wares; whereas, when we come to the professional sympathizer, not only are his remarks carefully reported, but, ten to one, a handsome editorial comments thereon and advises the reader to peruse what was said last night, at the great meeting in behalf of the struggling and oppressed Blanks, by the Hon. Peleg Bosh or the Rev. Mr. Twaddle. The reader does peruse; the speech is either a very fair blast of wind, ab origine, or has been well dressed up by the reporter; and as, moreover, it comes with a fine savor of Patriotism and Humanity and the Holiest &c., &c., &c.'s about it, the odds are very heavy you give your next lawsuit to the Hon. Bosh, and are good for a pew, or a contribution, or at least lecture tickets for self and family to the Rev. Twaddle.

And thus do these emotional creatures make it pay. Let any Blanks anywhere in any Blank-land revolt, or be said to have revolted—for it is not absolutely essential that there should be any such revolt or, in fact, any such Blank land or Blanks at all—out comes our professionals, Bosh with a new joke and Twaddle with another bloodthirsty perversion of Holy Writ. Flaring posters break out in a mange upon the city walls, a brass-band is engaged, and a hall hired. Loose fish shoal in, with here and there some respectable and well-meaning man caught by a fine word, and no end of frugal debauchees who, having been accustomed to drink the Bosh-Twaddle eloquence at fifty cents a ticket, are only too glad to get drunk upon it free. Before these respectable audiences, our humbugs ramp and roar. They know nothing in the world of the patriots of whom they speak, but they do know the patriots to whom they speak, and tickle them up in a cheerful degree. The next morning it is all in the papers; and, having revelled after supper in the glory of gab, the professional sympathizer revels before breakfast in the pride of print. If a lawyer, some client is pretty sure to drop in during the day; if a parson, some good souls sends him a check or a fat invitation to lecture comes to hand.

That our worthy has betrayed the people who trust him out of their substance; that he has acted a wicked unverity; that he has prostituted his talents to the probable shedding of blood in a quarrel whose merits he does not know; that he has sided to debauch the popular sentiment of even handed justice, and has his influences to the fostering of an indecent, unbecoming, and most vile spirit of intermeddling—are things that do not occur to him; as how should they to so profligate and barbarous an intellectual beast!—N. Y. World.

RELATIONS WITH ENGLAND.—The Northern papers state that Mr. Motley will go to England with instructions. He will merely tell the British Minister that we feel assured of our position, and can afford to wait.

Some of the New York editors have their residences and offices connected by telegraph lines.

THE SENTINEL.

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

SATURDAY, MAY 8, 1869.

HONORS.

There are some things we like. We like the Statesman of Baltimore in the main. We think it is, however, disposed to snub some good things. It snubs, for instance, Andrew Johnson's patriotism. That is neither democratic, nor just. It cannot be denied that Johnson stood up for the Constitution. We grant, that the Statesman is conducted with ability and calmness generally. Its standard of journalism is elevated, and it aspires to be a teacher. For all this we give it due applause. But we think "Homer nods" sometimes, both in letters and politics. Of course, we do not expect the editors to be exempt from human infirmities. All moreover are peccable, and the Statesman is no tabernacle. We like it, and do not prefer exceptions to any particular. But to our to discent acquiescence. In an article upon present grievances, they," it asks this question: "Dickens and Macaulay remember the great

"How many people, and what addition Bacon as Lord Verulam [illegible] fame by permit did Macaulay make to his Lord? Think ting himself to be called a [illegible] net on Shakspeare. The three greatest names Britain ever saw—Shakspeare, Bacon and Burns—were made so noble by genius, that any distinctions of rank or title would have been like "adding perfume to the rose," or like a transient, vapory circle round the moon, imparting no radiance to it, and soon fading away, and leaving the orb of compact silver to reign in solitary majesty in the firmament. It is gratifying to see a man of genius, like Mr. Dickens, show that he has some sense of the fitness of things."

Now we like some part of this. The sentiment in some particulars is correct. But there is a quiet sneer at honors that strikes us as neither in good taste nor strictly democratic; and the Statesman claims to be an organ of democratic principles and policy. We believe that Sir Walter Scott merited his Knighthood. It devotion to country; if an uncommon genius; if a most brilliant career in letters; if a genuine British manhood ever entitled a man to honors, we believe that the great wizard deserved them. It is true that Sir Walter was not a greater or more honored man than Mr. Walter, but it was none the less a grateful and deserved tribute to his high and unquestioned genius when Britain's ruler bestowed upon him the Knighthood. And so with Lord Macaulay.

Shakspeare, and Burns, and Bunyan would not certainly have been men of less parts or of less honor if they had been Lords and Dukes. What Burns has said is true—we can not copy the entire passage as we have not his works by us—that "a man's a man for a' that." In spite of honors some men continue to be right noble specimens of humanity.

Was Bacon injured in popular estimation by being made Lord Verulam? If a man of reading has never become familiar with his title, he is simply more negligent in that particular than hundreds of students in Colleges and schools have been. We suppose there is not in the State a moderately well read man in belles lettres who is not familiar with both names; and we venture to assert that neither Lord Bacon (his common title,) nor Lord Verulam (his proper title) ever made Francis Bacon any less a wonder to any man who had sense enough to understand his wonderful inductive philosophy—the Novum Organum—or his unique essays.

To denounce titles in this country, to say the least, is all bosh. Was Washington really any greater man as President than he was before? Was Alexander Hamilton, or Daniel Webster, or the two great Southrons, Henry Clay and Jno. C. Calhoun, any less great because they failed of Presidential honors? A thousand times, nay. But per contra, if they had been President, they, would have received that tribute which they had won, by long and brilliant services, and been crowned with honors that would have been most worthily worn.

A man may be "noble by nature" but that is no disqualification for honors and fame. Because he is one of "nature's noblemen" constitutes really a first rate reason why he should be crowned with the amaranthine wreath and wear honors and titles.

We believe, then, the sentiment of the Statesman is false, both as to the fact and as to the practice. Before honors conferred by either a sovereign or the sovereign people are barren, the time must come when men shall no longer seek fame or fortune; and it is best but badinage for the Statesman to endeavor to palm off such thread bare fallacies upon the public. If the public do not know very much of literary matters, it will readily perceive the absurdity of condemning titles in America or in England, or indeed anywhere. The world over peculiar merit, real or reputed, has been rewarded by titles. Charles Dickens may not agree to be made a Knight (if such a project is on foot,) but whether known as Sir Charles or Lord Dickens, he is still a huge dandy, with very bad morals and considerable genius. There was more true manhood, in Scotch Sir Walter or my Lord Macaulay, (Scotch too, we believe,) than in a whole band of gaseous Dickens's. It is a funny thing to read Lytton Bulwer's marvellous rhetorics involutions all in behalf of plain Mr. Charles Dickens, and then to read Mr. Charles' very clever responses. The Statesman likes such "blarney." We don't.

The Prussian journals continue to express surprise at the increase of emigration from the kingdom. On the 6th ultimo the railway conveyed to Bremen 1,500 peasants, and on the following day 2,000 others, about to embark for America. The poverty existing in the eastern provinces forces them to seek the means of existence in a new country.

We omitted the name of the Colonel as a member of the Halifax bar. His promotion at the bar bids fare to be as rapid as his promotion in the army. The Colonel was the youngest officer of his rank in the army of Virginia.

At fifteen he entered the army, in which he served two years. He returned home, entered our University, took the highest honors, and at graduation in his 18th year, again entered the service of his country, and was elected Major of the "Junior Reserves." He fought in the battles between Goldsboro' and Raleigh, in which he distinguished himself.

Napoleon said a Frenchman wanted no higher distinction than to have it said, "he belonged to the army of Italy." There was a time when there was no higher distinction than to say he belongs to the army of Virginia. But, alas, defeat will bring odium; even the old Quartermaster, Judge Rodman, who fed the boy Colonel, would now fain make him odious for having belonged to the army of Virginia.

General Leslie was quartered [illegible] of Mrs. Ashe. Col. Tarleton in the house him. The latter was [illegible] called to see the use of disparaging [illegible] again indulging in William Washington's terms about Col. happy to see [illegible], and said he would be creature." [illegible] the diminutive ugly little had looked Mrs. Ashe replied, "if you the battle behind you Colonel Tarlton at enjoyed of the Cowpens, you could have That that pleasure."

[illegible] Colonel was angered and seized the of his sword. General Leslie, pleased with the pluck of the noble woman, said, "say what you please, Mrs. Ashe, Colonel Tarleton, knows better than to insult a lady in my presence."

Will the good people, and especially the ladies at Durham's, in Orange, compare the conduct of General Estes to the conduct of General Leslie at Halifax?

AN ACT IN RELATION TO PUNISHMENTS.

We publish this act for the benefit of small weak men. Cebe Harris, the Superintendent of Public Works, who is a stout, large man, may beat any small man who offends him. If the small man use his stick or knife, or pistol, he has to go to the Penitentiary. The Judge has no discretion; the law puts him there.

If Cebe, Joe Holden, Pike, Farris, Jenkins, Bozier, Menninger, and negroes belonging to the League, swail a citizen, and the latter raises a knife, or stick, or pistol, under this law, he must go the Penitentiary. Among savages brute force prevails. Under this law brute force prevails. The weak man must submit to be beaten by the strong. If he dare resist he goes to the Penitentiary for not more than five years.

THE MILK IN THE COCOANUT.

"Show me the company you keep, and I will tell you what you are," runs an old saying. The Rochester Union says of the second number of the Imperialist: "Its last page is covered with sixteen business advertisements. Eleven of these are of leading Radical bondholders, bankers and other moneyed operators."

It has been stated several times in Northern papers that the Imperialist was owned and published by Radicals. Bond holders are at the bottom of this movement no doubt. They furnish the money. Who but the rich would be able to supply gratuitously thousands of copies of a large weekly paper. The publishers of the Imperialist say they do not want subscribers—that they have plenty of funds with which to circulate it without pay.

Quite recently we have seen it stated that Borie, Secretary of Navy, owned this advocate of Imperialistic ideas. Whether this is so or not, we do not pretend to be able to state. We think it highly probable, and now that two other papers of the "same stripe" are to be published—one in Philadelphia and one in Memphis—possibly some of the other Secretaries are investing in the same direction.

This however, we do not insist upon.—We give the rumors that are current at the North. It is a very suspicious circumstance to say the least, when eleven business advertisements are found adorning one page of the Imperialist, and these eleven advertisements belong to eminent bankers and plethoric bond holders of the Radical type.

THE NORTH CAROLINA RAILROAD.

Mr. Barnum, editor of the Live Giraffe published in this city, has recently taken a jaunt. In the last issue of his paper he gives some of his experiences in railroading. We propose to copy some of his remarks upon the North Carolina Railroad. They are not specially complimentary. Speaking of the present management, he says:

In the first place, to show the penurious ness of its management, it does not—like other well conducted roads, advertise its schedule in the papers. If a person wishes to take a train he must seek this information as to time, the best he can, or do as we did, go to the station and wait an hour for the train to come along, (which for the benefit of our readers we will state was the freight train going west, and is supposed to leave Raleigh at 11 40, A. M.)

To this was attached an old worn out, dingy, dusty, dirty, filthy passenger car, for the accommodation of the travelling public. In this we took our seat, in company with several others. Some ten minutes before starting, a greasy looking personage whom we took to be an engineer, fireman, or breaksman, came into the car and collected our fare. In all our railroad experience this was the first time we had ever seen fare collected before starting; and upon inquiry as to the reason, we learned that the money was needed to purchase a little oil with which to grease the engine before starting.

After a good long time of waiting we commenced to move off gradually, and for hours afterwards, by looking intently out of the window for some time, at some stationary object, we could perceive that we were still moving. We read through all the newspapers we could get hold of—took several good long naps—nearly wore out our best trowsers, and had become so hungry that we didn't know where on earth we were going to stay all night, when the train came to a quiet and permanent standstill, we seized our carpetbag and left the train perfectly disgusted.

Upon inquiry as to our whereabouts, we learned that we were at Durham's, some 25 miles from Raleigh. The great walkists, Professors Brewer and Martling of the State University could have, (according to all accounts,) walked further in half the time.

After careful and deliberate consideration, we have come to the unanimous conclusion, that the North Carolina Railroad is the worst managed, has the poorest accommodations, makes the slowest time, charges the highest rate of fare, does the least business, has the most incompetent set of officers, from President and Superintendent down, we have ever met with in all our travels.

We would advise the State to sell or give the road to some good responsible company which could afford to run it like other well conducted roads, which would not only confer a great blessing upon the public but would also benefit and relieve the State of a heavy tax for the support of a board of unqualified and incompetent Directors and official Managers.

AN ACT IN RELATION TO PUNISHMENT.

[Passed April 10th, 1869.]

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Sec. 1. Punishment for murder.

Every person, who is convicted, in due course of law, of any wilful murder of malice prepense, shall suffer death.

Sec. 2. Punishment for rape.

Every person who is convicted, in due course of law, of ravishing and carnally knowing any female of the age of ten years or more by force and against her will; or who is convicted, in like manner, of unlawfully and carnally knowing and abusing any female child under the age of ten years, shall suffer death.

Sec. 3. Punishment for Assault with intention to commit rape:

Every person convicted by due course of law, of assault with intent to commit a rape upon the body of any female, shall be imprisoned in the State prison not less than five or more than fifteen years.

Sec. 4. Punishment for arson of inhabited dwellings.

Every person convicted, according to due course of law, of any wilful burning of any inhabited dwelling house, or any part thereof, in the night time, shall suffer imprisonment, for the term of his natural life, in the State's prison.

Sec. 5. Arson of gin house or tobacco house.

Every person convicted of any wilful burning of any gin house or tobacco house, or any part thereof, shall be imprisoned in the State prison not less than five, nor more than ten years.

Sec. 6. Crimes heretofore punishable with death, how punished now.

Every person convicted of any crime, whereof the punishment has hitherto been death by the laws of North Carolina existing at the time the present Constitution went into effect, other than the crimes before specified in this act, shall suffer imprisonment in the State's prison for not less than five, nor more than sixty years.

Sec. 7. Assault with deadly weapon without intent to kill.

Every person who commits any assault upon the person of another, with any deadly or dangerous weapon, or who unlawfully shoots or attempts to shoot at another with any kind of firearms, with any intent to injure any person, without intent to kill such person or to commit any felony, shall be punished, upon conviction, by imprisonment in the State's prison not exceeding five years.

Sec. 8. Assault with deadly weapon with intent to kill.

Every person, who unlawfully shoots, or attempts to shoot at another, with any kind of firearms, with intent to kill any person; or who commits any assault upon another by means of any deadly weapon, or by such other means or force as was likely to produce death, with intent to kill any other person, shall, upon conviction, be punishable by imprisonment in the State's prison, not exceeding ten years.

Sec. 9. What punishment in lieu of corporal punishment.

Every crime or offence whatever, heretofore punishable by the laws of North Carolina when the present Constitution went into effect, with public whipping or other corporeal punishment, shall hereafter, in lieu of such corporeal punishment, be punished by imprisonment in the State's prison (or County jail) for not less than four months nor more than ten years.

SEC. 10. Where convicts confined till erection of a Penitentiary.

Whenever, until the completion of the State's prison, any person is sentenced to confinement therein, such convict may be confined in the County jail, or other secure place; or, if such convict be a male, he may be kept at hard labor on the construction of the State prison or other public work, as provided by law, during the whole or any part of his imprisonment, but such term of imprisonment shall begin to run upon and shall include the day of his conviction.

SEC. 11. Repeal.

An act entitled "An act in relation to punishments," ratified the twenty second day of August, Anno Domini, eighteen hundred and sixty-eight, and all laws and parts of laws in conflict with this act are repealed.

SEC. 12. This act shall be in force from the day of its ratification.

Ratified this 10th day of April, A. D., 1869.

JO. W. HOLDEN,
Speaker House of Representatives.
TOD R. CALDWELL,

Salt Lake City is favored with a one legged acrobat who walks the tight rope and swallows a sword when in the middle.

The planters about Montgomery, Ala., complain that the recent heavy rains have completely demolished the growing crop of cotton in the lowlands.

In twenty-four State prisons in the United States there were in 1868 an aggregate of 10,835 prisoners. These cost the States the round sum of $1,566,589, and their earnings amounted to $1,092,680.

The New York Times "don't see why the Mexicans should be so anxious to have Cuba severed from Spain. The Mexicans have certainly made a frightful business of governing their own country since they severed it."

CHAPEL HILL, May 7.

Mr. Turner—Dear me! dear me! here's the Standard with a correspondent (who signs himself "Correct English" and) who finds fault with Mr. Argo's parts of speech. Poor Mr. Argo! I feel so much for him that I come to the conclusion it is all your fault Mr. Turner. In the first place you went and printed his speech badly, and then you go and lay the blame on his "chirography." Pray what did you call his hand write his "chirography" for? I thought to be sure that big word meant another one of his parts of speech, till he told me better himself.

The best of it all is however, that the "Faculty" were delighted with this triumphant fling at poor Argo, that they immediately resolved our Argo, that they immediately resolved to have it publicly parsed at one of the approaching Commencement exercises. But on close examination it was ascertained that it cannot be parsed; so now it is probable it will be declaimed instead, there being a splendid opportunity for a withering sneer in the concluding paragraph.

The whole production, style, temper and grammar, is a fresh evidence of the literary taste, and critical acumen, and gentlemanly feeling that now adorn our "noble University. Don't we all know that feeble and venemous little track whenever we see it?

Poor Argo! He had his diploma too, signed by that wretched, corrupt old Faculty, thrown into his face. It will probably crush him. From the way he laughed this morning, I thought his brain was touched. Mr. Turner do be more careful and do not let the "chirography" of your correspondents drag them into such condemnation again. And don't you go to correcting their spelling, or revising 'em in any way; you only make bad, worse, for you know you are one of those old graduates too, who can't read their own Diploma.

Chapel Hill is cheerful. Mr Ashley says that in less than two years there will be 500 students here. Quere. Will they be white or black? Because Mr. Pool says if the white students won't come, the black ones very probably will. Why not? Mr. Brewer's reputation alone ought surely to attract some of his quondam pupils.

Meanwhile, think of Solomon Pool, threatening North Carolina!

Now in the name of all the gods at once,
Upon what meat doth this our Cæsar feed,
That he is grown so great?

It is a fact that sometimes when I go down street and see Solomon Pool sitting on the steps of Wood's shop with his little legs cocked in the air and his big cotton nankrii by his side, holding forth to a select few, white and black, when I look at him, and think what Chapel Hill owes to him in this last year or two, I can hardly repress my enthusiasm.

Oh! wad some power the giftie gie us,
To see ourselves as ithers see us, &c., &c., &c.,

Burns is a fine writer.

Total number of Tickets, 73,347.

All of the above is put in the drawing at the regular cash selling prices and will be disposed of by a regular mode of Drawing, and in order to accomplish this, the Company will sell 73,347 tickets at $2 each; for further information read section 10 and 11 of the By-Laws of the Company:

BY-LAWS.

SEC. 10. The plan of drawing shall be as follows: there shall be two wheels, one a prize wheel and one a number wheel, arranged in some public place in the city, where any one holding a ticket may be present on the day of drawing.—In the number wheel there shall be as many tickets corresponding in number as those which have been sold. In the prize wheel there shall be as many tickets as there are prizes, these tickets shall be deposited in the wheels by a board of supervisors, who shall be appointed by the Directors, after which the wheel shall be sealed up and placed in any bank in the city, the Directors may direct, until the time of drawing, when the supervisors shall bring the wheels to the drawing, break the seals and the drawing shall be disposed of by taking a ticket from each wheel, at the same time and the prize ticket taken from the prize wheel shall designate the prize drawn by the ticket corresponding in number to the one taken from the number wheel at the same time. The wheel shall be well shaken after each ticket is drawn.

SEC 11. The Directors shall designate the time and place of drawing, at which time and place the supervisors shall be required to be present and see that the drawing is conducted entirely equitable.

A Board of Supervisors, will be appointed who will have exclusive control and management of the drawing. They will conduct the distribution and see that each person is legally invested with the property he may draw. A duplicate registry of the tickets sold will be kept; so that, in the event of loss of ticket, the accident may be remedied and no mistake can occur.

The Drawing will take place in TUCKER HALL, in the City of Raleigh, immediately after sale of tickets,—of which due notice will be given.

The Company is working under the provisions of a special Charter granted by the General Assembly of North Carolina, which compels the Company to comply faithfully with all contracts.

Copies can be had on application to the Company.

All the above mentioned property will certainly be disposed of as above stated, and those drawing it will be invested with the title in fee simple.

☞ No member of the Company is allowed to purchase any tickets.

All moneys sent by mail, at the owner's risk that sent by Express, Registered Letters, Checks or Drafts, at the risk of the Company.

No property will be listed unless the title is indisputable.

The Treasurer has been required to give a bond of five thousand dollars for the faithful performance of his duties. He is required to deposit, daily, in the bank, all monies received, where it will remain until all the tickets are sold, and all the property will be positively drawn and delivered to the parties drawing, or the money returned. Send two dollars by express, postoffice order, registered letter, or draft, at our risk, or by mail at your own, and take a chance at the 2,000 valuable prizes offered.

Tickets will be sent any where in the United States at the Company's risk.

The address will be delivered by Major W. M. ROBARDS, of Salisbury, and the Rev. Mr. HUDSON, of this city, will officiate as Chaplain.

All persons, whether citizens or strangers who feel interested in these simple honors conferred upon our fallen countrymen, are requested to meet at the Cemetery at the hour above designated.

TO A "SWEET-BETSY.

I love the flowers—
The splendid white Magnolia, grand,
Queen it over our Southern land,
Your sister, with her sister Bay,
Of Southern crown, next chiefest ray;
And Roses, from the "Cloth of Gold,"
That whisper of the knights of old,
Down to the simple "Daily White,"
We gather, when tears dim the sight,
From "Battle's Giant," gorgeous red,
That speaks of fields where heroes bled,
Until a little bud, half closed,
Was tender with a love reposed.
Twilight and Jasmines, Wild Woodbine
Pinks, Pansies, Daisies, Eglantine,
And Violets, (whose heavenly hue
Reminds me of those eyes of blue)
And Hyacinths, whose lives are fleet,
And Heliotrope. All, all are sweet,
But no sweeter than all flowers that grow,
Is one "Sweet-Betsy" that I know

MAJ. A. M. LEWIS.—This gentleman arrived in this city last evening with his family. He has done a large practice as a lawyer, in Memphis, since the close of the war. We welcome him to his native State, and trust he will soon regain the extensive practice he gave up, when he left the "Old North State."

MR. C. P. CARDOZA.—This gentleman has been turned out of his place as mail agent on the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad. He has furnished us with the following statement:

"About the 10th of March, I went to Washington and asked Col. Dowdese what was to be done with the mail agents on the Raleigh and Gaston Road? He told me, in reply, that we would not be removed, and advised me to return to my post and go on distributing the mail as usual, that I should not be interfered with. On the last day of April, he told me that he had certainly secured my place for me, and that I would not be removed. I had sent in my resignation three weeks ago, and had not received any reply. I intended visiting Washington again for the purpose of having my resignation accepted. The papers came at last, and C. P. Cardoza was announced as removed instead of resigned."

Mr. C. is a native of Richmond, Virginia, and commands the respect and confidence of all who know him. His successor is Mr Ball, Doorkeeper of the Senate.

THE MILTONIAN TABLEAUX.—A large audience greeted the unfolding of these grand panoramic views. They are represented as being peculiarly imposing. They will be exhibited again to-night at Tucker Hall.

WE are not disposed to complain unnecessarily, but we think our exchanges who copy from the Sentinel might give us credit for the same. We complained a few days ago, but the evil has not been remedied. We notice in glancing over our State papers this morning, that some three or four articles that were prepared for the Sentinel are copied but without any credit being given. Our friend of the Fayetteville Eagle has nearly a column, but without credit. Of course we do not suppose it is intentional.

THE CAROLINA FARMER.—This excellently printed monthly for May is upon our table. We have not read any of its matter, but the number before us appears to be well-filled with articles upon topics of interest and importance to the farming community. We are pleased to learn that its success is assured, its circulation being already much larger than was anticipated. Published monthly, at Wilmington, N. C., by Wm. H. Bernard. Terms $2,00 per year. Specimen copies sent on receipt of stamp for postage.

WE LEARN that the Railroad meeting recently held in Fayetteville, was quite an enthusiastic affair. It is thought to be quite certain now that the road will run from Fayetteville to Salisbury.

REV. DR. WINGATE, President of Wake Forest College, will preach to-morrow morning at the Baptist Church.

TURTLE SOUP. Our ancient friend W. R. Pepper placed us under obligations again on yesterday by sending us some of the most delightful turtle soup it has ever been our good fortune to enjoy. Pepper has forgotten more about turtle soup making than Jim Foot Taylord ever knew.

OUR townsman Thos. D. Hogg, Esq., has just returned to our city from Europe. He has made the "tour of the Continent' Africa and Asia, and has been absent eight months.

ON next Monday, the 10th of May, the Memorial Ceremonies will take place as published elsewhere. Those floral offerings by our fair gentle women are fitting tributes to the memories of the dauntless boys in gray who fell in defence of what they held to be right.

ADVERTISING RATES.—On Monday next we will publish new advertising rates, by which we will be guided hereafter. There will be a considerable reduction in those published last Monday.

THERE was a false alarm of fire this morning. The fire companies were out, but did not have a chance to display their expertness in squelching flames.

STATE NEWS.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT.—The down mail train over the Seaboard road, on Saturday evening last, knocked a negro woman from the track, fracturing her skull, breaking an arm, and severely lacerating one of her legs. She was living, however, at last accounts. She was engaged, it seems, in driving some hogs from the road when she was caught by the approaching train.—Roanoke News.

FIRE.—Our city last evening was visited by another conflagration. About 8½ o'clock a small wooden building on Front street, between Dock and Orange, was discovered to be on fire. It was occupied by Mr. G. W. Williams, who had in it a small stock of groceries. The fire was discovered in the back part of the building, and the alarm was quickly given. The engines hurried to the spot, but the building was soon in flames. The No. 3. (colored) fire company was the first to arrive, and play a stream upon the fire. This was done with in five minutes from the time the alarm was given. Through the efforts of this company the shop adjoining was saved. The steam engine soon arrived and played away handsomely, and in less than half an hour from the time the alarm was given the last vestige of the flames was extinguished.

The building belonged to the estate of Mrs. John Walker, deceased, and was totally consumed. The loss is estimated at about $1,000. No insurance.

The stock of Mr. Williams was worth about $800 or $1,000, upon which there was no insurance.—Wil. Journal.

UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA.—We direct attention to the first of a series of sketches of the University of North Carolina, copied from the Raleigh Sentinel, published to day. We shall continue their publication as they appear. These sketches are from the pen of one of the most accomplished writers of the State, and one entirely familiar with the subject. They will be a source of pleasure and pain to the Alumni of that venerable institution—pleasure in referring to its honorable past, and pain in contemplating its present degradation.—Ib.

ASSIGNEE'S SALE.—Yesterday, Mr. J. J. Linchford, Assignee in bankruptcy, sold the life interest of Mr. Henry A. London, of Chatham, in the store on Water street, known as the "Lord property." It was purchased by Mr. Henry A. London, Jr., for $1,800.—Ib.

HAIL STORM.—We are told that a heavy hail storm was experienced along the line of the Wilmington, Charlotte & Rutherford Railroad in the vicinity of Shoe Heel Wednesday. The cars were nearly blown off the track from its violence.—Ib.

WILL REBUILD.—Col. A. B. Jones, the energetic Superintendent of the Cape Fear Fibre Company, informs us that it is his intention at once to commence rebuilding the works of the Company destroyed by fire yesterday morning. This time they will be put up expressly for the business, and the Colonel declares that he will construct them to suit him, not take them as before, just as we could get them. Operations will be thus greatly facilitated, and it is thought that not more than three months' time will be required for the completion of the work.—Ib.

MEMORIAL CELEBRATION.—It gives us much pleasure to announce that Col. R. H. Cowan has consented to deliver the address on the occasion of the Memorial Celebration Monday afternoon next.—Ib.

A most extensive sale of real and personal property will be made in this place on the 15th inst., in the selling to the highest bidder of all the lands and buildings comprising the Warrenton Female College, household and kitchen furniture, beds, bedding, &c., in all, an immense quantity.—Here is presented a rare opportunity for the purchase of one of the most valuable pieces of property in North Carolina—as also the necessary furniture, &c., for the commencement of a large boarding school.—Living Present.

The lands of the late Lewis Christmas, lying about two-and-a half miles from this place, were sold at public auction on Saturday last, for the following prices:

One tract of 381 acres for $5,550, purchased by Col. W. S. Davis.

One tract of 241 acres for $1,750, by Dr. W. J. Hawkins.

These are certainly good prices; and when it is remembered that the sales were made at a time of unusual monetary pressure, it is doubly encouraging in the future, and indicates, we believe, the gradual return to better times.—Ib.

Last Friday marked the exodus of several white citizens and ninety-seven negroes from our place and immediate vicinity.—The latter are a part of the force employed by Mr. Horace T. Royster upon the Western N. C. R. R. The two Messrs. Royster have sent to Western Carolina to work on railroads about 240 hands.—Henderson Index.

Mr. Jonathan Kisz, of New Jersey, recently bought the house tract of Mr. Charles Champion, in our neighbor county of Watren, consisting of one hundred and fifty six acres, paying him for it $900. Mr. Kisz, like most of the Northern gentlemen settling in our section, from what we can learn, is an enterprising man and good citizen. We welcome all such to our soil a friends, and hope they may come in whole troupes and legions. There are the men of brains and means and morals. When they shall always meet at the hands of the true Southron a hospitable reception.—Ib.

FISH.—Just now the market is abundantly supplied with almost every variety of fish to be found in North Carolina waters, at this season of the year, and the prices range low. Among the different species on sale, yesterday, we noticed one hundred and eighty large drum, selling at sums ranging from twenty-five to forty cents. This was not more than two cents a pound. Can Wilmington beat it?—Western Journal of Commerce.

Just So.—When a boot maker buys a newspaper, he should always ask for the last edition!

WHO KILLED YANCEY?

A Correspondent in Harrisonburg, Virginia, writes:

A few days ago I heard a conversation in relation to the death of Wm. L. Yancey, of South Carolina, which goes to prove an assertion that I have previously heard, namely: that he was killed by Hill, of Georgia. One of the speakers said that he was intimately acquainted with a man by the name of Shanks, a stenographer who reported the proceedings of the Rebel Congress. On one occasion Shanks came to his house in a state of intoxication, and said he had the notes of the proceedings of the Rebel Congress, and meant shortly to publish them in a book, when some startling developments would be made. On being asked about the death of Yancey, he declined to answer on the ground that it would injure the sale of his book, "but," said he, "when the proceedings of the secret session are published, you will know all about it," and I will now state that he did not die a natural death.—The reporter died a few weeks later of delirium tremens, and the book was never published. Another gentleman now said that he knew that Yancey was killed by Hill, having been acquainted with a member of Congress, who was present, and who told him in confidence all about it. The affair occurred during the exciting session held in reference to the proposition made by Mr. Lincoln to the Peace Commissioners in Hampton Roads. Hill and Yancey got into a personal dispute, during which Hill struck Yancey a blow which eventually resulted in his death. I am fully satisfied that this is the truth of this disputed question.

GERMAN IMMIGRATION.—We are always glad to welcome German and Norwegian immigrants to this country. And for one especial reason, among others—that they do not insist on remaining in our great Atlantic cities, but largely go to the virgin soil of the West and South. This spring the German immigration promises to be larger than ever before. On Monday some six hundred arrived at Boston, from Liverpool, bound to Virginia and Minnesota. Each colony numbered about three hundred persons, and they have come furnished with a variety of comfort and conveniences and an amount of luggage, which indicate their connection with the well-to-do classes of their native land. They are also accompanied by intelligent agents, who will attend them to their respective settlements, and see that they are not defrauded by landsharks who will lavade every step of the newly-arrived foreign immigrants.—Boston Traveller.

A SCHUTZEN CLUB.—It affords us pleasure in being able to state that our German fellow citizens are now forming Societies and Clubs with a view to secure a Schutzenplatz that they may enjoy reasonable, healthful and innocent amusements, in which the citizens would gladly join.—Courier-Bulletin.

INCENDIARISM.—An attempt was made last week to burn the dwelling house of Mr. J. H. Paylor, of Yanceyville, a man without a known enemy. The fire was put under the steps, but fortunately went out.—Milton Chron.

A Thoroughly Independent Man.—One who depends on an inn for his living.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

For all the purposes of a Laxative Medicine.

Perhaps no one medicine is so universally required by everybody as a cathartic, nor was ever any before so universally adopted into use, in every country and among all classes, as this mild but efficient purgative Pill. The obvious reason is, that it is a more reliable and far more effectual remedy than any other. Those who have tried it, know that it cured them; those who have not, know that it cures their neighbors and friends, and all know that what it does once it does always—that it never fails through any fault or neglect of its composition. We have, and can show, thousands upon thousands of certificates of remarkable cures of the following complaints, but such cures are known in every neighborhood, and why should we publish them? Adapted to all ages and conditions in all climates; containing neither calomel or any deleterious drug, they may be taken with safety by anybody. Their sugar coating preserves them ever fresh and makes them pleasant to take, while being purely vegetable no harm can arise from their use in any quantity.

They operate by their powerful influence on the internal viscera to purify the blood and stimulate it into healthy action—remove the obstructions of the stomach, bowels, liver, and other organs of the body, restoring their irregular action to health, and by correcting, wherever they exist, such derangements as are the first origin of disease.

Minute directions are given in the wrapper on the box, for the following complaints, which these Pills rapidly cure:—

For Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Listlessness, Languor and Loss of Appetite, they should be taken moderately to stimulate the stomach and restore its healthy tone and action.

For Liver Complaint and its various symptoms, Bilious Headache, Sick Headache, Jaundice or Green Sickness, Bilious Colic and Bilious Fevers, they should be judiciously taken in each case, to correct the diseased action or remove the obstructions which cause it.

For Dysentery or Diarrhœa, but one mild dose is generally required.

For Rheumatism, Gout, Gravel, Palpitation of the Heart, Pain in the Side, Back and Loins, they should be continuously taken, as required, to change the diseased action of the system. With such change those complaints disappear.

For Dropsy and Dropsical Swellings they should be taken in large and frequent doses to produce the effect of a drastic purge.

For Suppression a large dose should be taken as it produces the desired effect by sympathy.

As a Dinner Pill, take one or two Pills to promote digestion and relieve the stomach.

An occasional dose stimulates the stomach and bowels into healthy action, restores the appetite, and invigorates the system. Hence it often is advantageous where no serious derangement exists. One who feels tolerably well, often finds that a dose of these Pills makes him feel decidedly better, from their cleansing and renovating effect on the digestive apparatus. Where are instances does where a purgative is required, which we cannot enumerate here, but they suggest themselves to everybody, and where the virtues of this Pill are known, the public no longer doubt what to employ.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, and Consumption.

Probably never before in the whole history of medicine, has anything won so widely and so deeply upon the confidence of mankind, as this excellent remedy for pulmonary complaints. Through a long series of years, and among most of the races of men it has risen higher and higher in their estimation, as it has become better known. Its uniform character and power to cure the various affections of the lungs and throat, have made it known as a reliable protection against them. While adapted to milder forms of disease and to young children, it is at the same time the most effectual remedy that can be given for incipient consumption, and the dangerous affections of the throat and lungs. As a provision against sudden attacks of Croup, it should be kept on hand in every family, and indeed as all are sometimes subject to colds and coughs, all should be provided with this antidote for them.

Although settled Consumption is thought incurable, still great numbers of cases where the disease seemed settled, have been completely cured, and the patient restored to sound health by the Cherry Pectoral. So complete is its mastery over the disorders of the Lungs and Throat, that the most obstinate of them yield to it. When nothing else could reach them, under the Cherry Pectoral they subside and disappear.

Singers and Public Speakers find great protection from it.

Asthma is always relieved and often wholly cured by it.

Bronchitis is generally cured by taking the Cherry Pectoral in small and frequent doses.

So generally are its virtues known that it is unnecessary to publish the certificates of them here, or do more than assure the public that its qualities are fully maintained.

ÆTNA

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

JANUARY 1ST., 1869.

Assets $10,462,531,75.

Amount of Income 6,227,071.

SURPLUS OVER LIABILITIES 2,675,990,48.

THE Ætna is the LEADING LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY in North Carolina.

Largest amount of Losses to Widows and Orphans!

The Largest Revenue to the States. And has by far the largest number when compared with 58 Companies reported officially by the Commissioners of New York and Massachusetts it will be seen that the Ætna ranks as one of the first Companies of the Continent. But two of the fifty-eight Companies permitted to do business in New York and Massachusetts had so large an income for the year 1868; but two had so large a number of Policies in force, but one among all those incorporated under the laws of the State of New York had so small a per centage of Expense to Income during the year 1868.

Its expenses are lower than most Companies', and consequently its ability to make and pay liberal dividends to the insured is greater than that of most other Companies. It is one of the great Companies of the land in Income, in Assets, in Number of Policies, in Amount Insured, in Solidity and Strength, in Soundness, Cheapness, Promptness, and Success. Persons contemplating this mode of investment in the future as in the past would do well to examine the claims of all and take a policy accordingly.

"THERE ARE NO TEARS IN HEAVEN"

I met a child; his feet were bare,
His weak frame shivered with the cold;
His youthful brow was knit with care,
His flashing eye his sorrow told.
Said I, "Poor boy, why weepest thou?"
"My parents are both dead," he said;
"I have not where to lay my head;
O, I am lone and friendless now!"
Not friendless, child; a friend on high
For you his precious blood hath given;
Cheer up and let each tear be dry—
"There are no tears in Heaven."

I saw a man, in life's gay noon,
Stand weeping o'er his young bride's bier;
"And we must part," he cried, "so soon!"
As down his cheek there rolled a tear.
'Heart-stricken one," said I, "weep not!"
"Weep no!" in accents wild, he cried,
"But yesterday my young love died!
And shall she be unseen forgot!"
Forget her! no, still let her love
Sustain thy heart with anguish riven,
Strive then to meet thy bride above,
And dry your tears in Heaven.

I saw a gentle mother weep,
As to her throbbing heart she pressed
An infant, seemingly asleep,
On its kind mother's aching breast.
"Fair one," said I, "pray weep no more!"
Sobbed she, "the ideal of my hope
I now am called to render up;
My babe has reached death's gloomy shore."
Young mother, yield no more to grief,
Nor be by passion's tempest driven,
But find in these sweet words relief—
"There are no tears in Heaven."

Poor traveller o'er life's troubled wave,
Cast down by grief, o'erwhelmed by fear,
There is an arm above can save;
Then yield not thou to fell despair.
Look upward, mourners, look above!
What tho' the thunders echo loud!
The sun shines bright behind the cloud;
Then trust to thy Redeemer's love.
Where'er thy lot in life be cast,
Whate'er of toil or woe be given,
Be firm—remember to the last,
"There are no tears in Heaven."

WASHING COMPOUND.

Patented Sept. 22, 1868.

REASONS FOR PREFERRING THIS SOAP.

The Patentee claims for this Soap the following advantages which are clearly set forth in the Letters Patent, to-wit:

First, it can be manufactured at less than half the cost of any soap ever produced.

Secondly, it may be used successfully in any kind of water—cold or hot, hard or soft.

Thirdly, it so modifies the action of boiling water on woollen goods that their fibres do not contract under its influence, and your woollen garment is as large after boiling as before.

Fourth, it does not decompose the colors of goods, and your prints and stripes are as brilliant after washing as before.

Fifth, the goods do not require any rubbing or patent washing machine—all that is necessary is a few minutes boiling and a good rinsing.

LIFE INSURANCE.

NATIONAL

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

OF THE

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

WASHINGTON, D. C.

Chartered by Special Act of Congress, Approved July 25th, 1868.

CASH CAPITAL,

$1,000,000,

PAID IN FULL.

It is no longer a question with any man, who tenderly loves his wife and children, who considers how helpless would be their condition in case of his death, as to the duty of taking out a LIFE POLICY, but as to which Company he shall pay his money.

If he reflects a moment he will conclude to patronize the Company which shows the greatest degree of vitality, which extends its business over the largest area, which is a Home Company in every locality; which furnishes insurance at the least cost; which issues no policies that are forfeitable should he be unable next year, or any subsequent year to pay his renewal; and which is undoubtedly able to meet ALL ITS PROMISES.

With these feelings and views, he looks over the newspapers, and, by the time he gets through reading the advertisements of Mutual or Mixed Companies, he finds his mind so fuddled that he is at a loss where to go or what to do. He can not comprehend one-half that is written, and concludes that none but ACTUARIES, who are familiar with the principles upon which Life Insurance is based can comprehend or explain anything about dividends and his liability for notes given in part payment of premiums. In his dilemma, he looks into the plan adopted by the

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

U. S. A.,

and finds just what he wants:

An ALL CASH PLAN, reduced to the LOWEST MINIMUM Rate, like any commodity in Market, so much Insurance for so much Money. No notes to give; no interest to pay; no anxiety about Assessments; no apprehension of his Policy being forfeited next year if he does not pay his annual Renewal; and the RATES so much LOWER than other Companies, that he realizes a larger Dividend, IN ADVANCE, than other Companies can pay him in the future.

He finds that, instead of this UNCERTAIN PROMISE, and present high rate, that the presents a certain and definite sum for a much lower rate, and puts up its paid up Capital of

$1,000,000

as a guarantee fund, that its contracts will be fulfilled, and, like thousands of others, cheerfully calls on their Agent to make his application for a Policy. Hence the unprecedented and most wonderful success of the NATIONAL as contrasted with the older and Mutual Companies.

The Company issued its first policy on the 1st of August, 1868, and up to March 1st, 1869, it had issued 5,582 policies.

CAPITAL OF THE STATE,

Daily, Semi-Weekly and Weekly,

NEW ARRANGEMENT.

The RALEIGH SENTINEL having passed under the Editorial management of the undersigned, it will, from the present date, be conducted by him.

It will be the zealous and fearless advocate of the CONSTITUTION of the United States, seeking to bring the people back to their ancient reverence for that immortal instrument, and to restore the policy of the country to that honored standard, as the only guarantee of National prosperity.

It will do justice to the men and measures of the present day, whenever they may merit it, but it will unsparingly lash and denounce all who set themselves up in opposition to the Federal Constitution, and hold up to the public indignation corruption and imbecility in high places.

It will ardently seek the promotion of the best interests of North Carolina,—moral, educational, material and political.

THE LATEST NEWS

From every quarter, both by mail and telegraph will be carefully collated and condensed.

Full and correct market and financial reports will be given.

And, in one word, no effort will be spared to make the SENTINEL, in all respects, a reliable

CAUTION! WE desire to warn the dealers in, and consumers of Snuff generally, that since the war, certain Tobacco Manufacturers, being unable to find a market for their snuffs, felt themselves obliged to counterfeit the general appearance of our packages, and imitate our Trade Marks, so that a close inspection is necessary to detect the spurious article from the genuine, and others going so far as to assert that "Lorillard's Snuff is no longer made."

In making this publication we desire to warn the public against the impositions practiced upon them, as they are the losers thereby. It will be found, upon comparison, that Lorillard's Snuff is "far ahead" of all others, being made of the best stock, after an original and secret process known only to ourselves, besides possessing great age, strength and pungency, and is warranted not to contain any dangerous or deleterious substances, which cannot be said of many worthless articles put on sale by others. The best is the cheapest in the end. A circular will always be mailed on application. In ordering please specify if Salt Snuff (High Toast,) or Fresh Snuff (Extra Scotch) is desired.

MISCELLANEOUS

NEW METHOD OF WASHING CLOTHES WITHOUT LABOR.

THE AUTOMATIC
CLOTHES WASHER AND BOILER.

THIS BOILER IS MOST EFFECTUAL, reliable and universally recommended. It can be used on any Stove or Range, in any boiler, and the low PRICE of the article places it within the reach of every family.

This Boiler operates upon purely philosophical principles, is self-acting, and dispenses with labor and the wear of the clothes.

The hot suds and steam, by the action of heat, are driven up through tubes, poured upon the clothes, and forced through the fabric with astonishing rapidity, cleansing all articles, from the finest laces to the bed-blankets. For Flannels it is invaluable, as it does not full them as in the old process of rubbing and pressing.

The time required for cleansing a boiler full of clothes is twenty to thirty minutes, and nearly three hundred gallons of boiling suds are forced through the fabric, thoroughly loosening and eradicating the dirt WITHOUT LABOR or friction.—A thorough rinsing finishes the process.

Washing day will no longer be a terror and dread to housewives. The cost of the Boiler will soon be recurred in the SAVING OF TIME AND LABOR, and the great saving in the wear of clothes.

The great value of this invention appears so clear, and appeals so directly to common sense, that we have deemed it unnecessary to accompany its announcement with numerous letters of approval, &c.

No invention has met with such ready sale and given such satisfaction. Call at LOUGEE & BROTHER'S, and see its wonderful operations.—We have the exclusive right to sell and manufacture in the State.

OF

1,100 ACRES OF VALUABLE LAND

IN WARREN COUNTY.

BY VIRTUE OF A DECREE OF THE Supreme Court, I shall offer for sale, at the Court House door, in the town of Warrenton,

ON SATURDAY THE 1st. DAY OF MAY 1869,

1100 Acres of Land, belonging to the estate of Lewis Y. Christmas, deceased. Said land is situated, partly on Fishing Creek in Warren County, about 5½ miles South-west of Warrenton, and 4 miles from Ridgway on the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad. This land has a fair proportion of wood and cleared land, and produces wheat, tobacco, cotton, corn, &c., and being situated within easy reach of different markets, is deemed one of the most valuable farms in Warren County. To suit purchasers, it may be sold in two or three separate parcels.

TERMS: For one fourth of the purchase money cash will be required on the day of sale—and one half of the residue payable on the 1st. day of January 1870, and the other half on the 1st. day of January 1871, secured by bonds with two good securities.

SALE OF VALUABLE
REAL AND PERSONAL ESTATE
IN THE TOWN OF
WARRENTON N. C.

BY AUTHORITY VESTED IN ME BY AN ASsignment, executed on the 6th. day of February 1869, by the board of Directors of the "The Warrenton Female College," of all the property both real and personal belonging to the said corporation, to be disposed of by public sale for the benefit of all the creditors of the said institution, I shall on the 13th. day (Thursday) of May 1869, sell on the premises to the highest bidder for Cash, the houses, lands &c., known as

"THE WARRENTON FEMALE COLLEGE,"

with all the appurtenances thereunto belonging. There are fifty acres of land, more or less, upon which the aforesaid premises are located—in a high state of improvement.

There will be sold also at the same time and place, the personal property belonging to the said institution, consisting in part of Musical instruments, valuable Library and Chemical Apparatus, the whole of the Household and Kitchen Furniture, and many other articles, valuable, but too numerous to mention.
